CORSO VENTURES

Urban Meyer's Pint House Coming to Bridge Park

Urban Meyer to partner with Corso Ventures to bring new Pint House concept to Dublin

DUBLIN, OHIO - Urban Meyer's Pint House is set to open at Bridge Park in Dublin, Ohio this fall. Meyer has established a partnership with area restaurant owner Chris Corso of Corso Ventures on this project. Corso Ventures is responsible for the opening and operation of several Columbus hot spots including Forno Kitchen + Bar, Standard Hall, Food Hall, Goody Boy Diner and Short North Pint House, all located in the Short North Arts District.

Building off of the already successful Short North Pint House concept, Urban Meyer's Pint House will bring all of the energy and intensity that Ohio sports fans crave to create the ultimate game day experience in Bridge Park. The establishment will offer a wide variety of craft beer options and Pint House's famous made-from-scratch menu items, including an expanded menu featuring favorites from many existing Corso Ventures restaurants.

"When Corso Ventures approached me with this unique opportunity to partner with their elite restaurant and hospitality team on a Pint House in Bridge Park, it was a no brainer," said Urban Meyer, former Head Coach of The Ohio State Buckeyes. "Not only does Urban Meyer's Pint House allow me to stay attached to the central Ohio community, but it will also make the perfect space to host events supporting our foundation."

Urban Meyer's Pint House will double the size of the Short North Pint House location, including Urban's 7-0 room, a private event space commemorating Urban's record against the University of Michigan. The room will feature many of the awards, trophies and special memorabilia that Meyer has acquired over his career. It also will serve as home to many of the events hosted by Urban and Shelley Meyer Foundation.

“Corso Ventures has always been committed to creating fun and exciting experiences across Columbus,” said Chris Corso of Corso Ventures. “The vibrancy being built in Bridge Park makes it an obvious choice and we are thrilled to be honoring the career of Coach Urban Meyer with a venue that we envision will be Dublin’s premier destination to celebrate game day or any other special occasion.”

Urban Meyer’s Pint House will be joining a long list of dining and entertainment establishments at Bridge Park including REBoL, Cap City Fine Diner, Local Cantina, Fado Pub and Kitchen, Fukuryu Ramen, VASO Rooftop Lounge, Condado, Hen Quarter and many more. Bridge Park also has recently announced the second location of the North Market set to open in Spring 2020.

“We’re really enthusiastic to welcome Urban and Corso Ventures to Bridge Park,” said Brent Crawford, principal at Crawford Hoying. “We love bringing ‘firsts’ to the area and are all about supporting local and this project checks both of those boxes. Urban Meyer’s Pint House is going to be a very exciting addition to the central Ohio community and we couldn’t be happier to be a part of it.”

Urban Meyer’s Pint House will be occupying 8,500 SF of space on the corner of Bridge Park Avenue and Longshore Street, a space previously occupied by RAM Restaurant and Brewery, which recently left the Columbus market. The location currently offers a large interior seating and kitchen area and an indoor/outdoor patio bar that overlooks Bridge Park Avenue. Urban Meyer’s Pint House is anticipated to open fall of 2019, following some renovations to the space.
